Volunteers In Public Schools DOES NOT OPERATE these tutoring programs; it merely compiles this list of community service organizations that offer free tutoring for children.

Please share this valuable information. If a child needs help, contact the organization(s) listed below before visiting.

Also, first check with your child's school to see if it offers after school tutoring.

Many programs observe school holidays. Be sure to make sure the program is meeting on / over school holidays.

BREC (The Recreation and Parks Commission) provides after school programs at several of its locations, some of which may offer tutoring. Brochures detailing the BREC offerings are available at all BREC facilities and at the public library.

This list is representative of programs that provide free tutoring for school-age children. If you are aware of additional programs not included in this list, please contact the VIPS office at 226-4700.

Many of these programs follow the school calendar. If schools are closed in observance of a holiday, please call the contact at the tutoring site to confirm whether tutoring will be offered.
